Response to Amendment

1. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed September 27, 2005 is sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1-8 based upon insufficiency of disclosure under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art show a method of remodeling cranium of a mammal by applying forces to a cranial region; however, the prior art does not show or fairly suggest the steps of applying cyclic forces to the cranial region with the claimed parameters for a predetermined period of time and repeating the application a plurality of times until a predetermined amount of bone remodeling from osteogenesis is obtained. The prior art show a method of applying cyclic forces to a cranial region of a mammal and the claimed parameters being inherent in the step of massaging the cranial region; however, the prior art does not show or fairly suggest the application of cyclic forces for a predetermined period of time and repeating the application a plurality of times until a predetermined amount of bone remodeling from osteogenesis is obtained. This allowance is in view of the affidavit by an expert in the art of the claimed invention as to enablement.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
